Informed Consent for Naturopathic Treatment for Nicky Gonis ND

Naturopaths assess the whole person by taking into consideration the physical, mental, emotional and spiritual aspects of the individual. They can use several modalities as part of your/your child's individualized treatment plan, including homeopathy, Herbal Medicine, Nutrition and Lifestyle modification. Each treatment plan can include any or all of the above modalities depending on your individual health concerns.

It is very important to inform me of any disease/illness you or your child currently has or has had in the past, as well as current medications. You are expected to understand I am not able to predict the outcome of the treatment given, I encourage you to discuss any concerns with me.

By signing this consent form, you agree that you understand that I am is not a medical doctor and does not provide prescription medications.

- You are free to consult with any other licensed health care provider as you choose and that the treatment Nicky provides is not exclusive, but it is important that she is informed of any other treatment you or your child is receiving in order to avoid negative interactions/side effects.
- You are ultimately responsible for your own and your child's health.
- You understand adverse reactions may occur as a result of treatment, they may include but are not limited to digestive disturbances, skin issues and headaches. These should be short term, please discuss any reactions with me immediately.
- Treatment results are variable for each individual and cannot be guaranteed. Treatment plans and lengths are guidelines only and are subject to change according to individual progress.
- You understand the fee schedule and agree to pay for all costs of visits, supplements and tests as incurred.
- 24 hours' notice is required when cancelling or changing an appointment. Otherwise, a charge may incur.
- I understand that Naturopathic Care is a joint responsibility between the patient and practitioner. Improving lifestyle can be as important as the remedies and treatments.

With this knowledge, as the guardian or patient of Nicky Gonis, I voluntarily consent to Naturopathic care and I intend for this consent form to cover mine/ my dependent's entire course of treatment.

I understand that I am free to withdraw consent at any time I wish.
